

Construction of a modern climbing center of the German Alpine Club with a 169 m² large solar façade on a wooden substructure on the south side of the envelope. The JURABLOC impresses with the unique combination from natural stone façade and different materials.

 16.6 MWh
energy yield per year

 8.8 tons
CO₂ savings per year

Black
B001

Client: Bauer Energietechnik
Architects: Seibold + Seibold, Eichstätt
Project Realisation: 2016
Location: Eichstätt, Germany
Building Type: Sports Hall / New Building
Façade Area: 169 m²
Number of Modules: 160 Modules
System Output: 21.6 kWp
Color: Black
Project Partner: Bauer Energietechnik, Ingolstadt